

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

“No One Runs Alone”

November 12, 2017 | Hebrews 12:1-3

1. Who in your life has shown remarkable faith? How did this encourage you?
2. Who in this church has modeled remarkable faith? How did this encourage you?
3. The Christian life is allegorized as an athletic competition in this passage. How would you describe it?
4. What does it mean to you to fix your eyes on Jesus? How have you failed at this? How have you succeeded? What did you learn?
5. Jesus was willing to die for us. So, how can you do a better job to live for Him? How can the Christian faith give you more great joy and purpose for living? What will you do?
6. What do you need to get rid of so you can throw off that which hinders and slows you down in the practice of your faith? What sins need to be removed? (Anything that gets in the way of God can be a sin!)
7. What are some burdens, such as fear or lack of focus or... that hinder you from your training and running in your journey of faith? What do you need to do?
8. What do you need to do to not only enter the “race of faith” and run, but to also keep running? How do you rely on Jesus Christ to do this? How do you see Jesus helping you to keep going even when you’re limping just as Derek Redmond’s father did for him during his trials at the Olympics?

Today’s questions adapted from Into Thy Word Ministries study on Hebrews 11:1-3.

Small Group Questions are also available to download at firstpresge.org/sermons.